Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 10-19 and 49 are allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Claim 49 recites limitations to an alternative process of an electronic payment order. The only choices possible for the intended recipient can be a merchant's bank or a customer's bank. The prior art cited showed a third party recipient, which cannot meet the "identifying" step. In addition to the limiting "identifying" step, there are specific steps recited for both options pertaining to how the order would be processed including reformatting, sending, endorsing, preparing a deposit, sending and posting or sending, debiting, sending to third party, sending approval, reformatting, and sending to merchant's on-line terminal. Claims 10-19 are dependent upon claim 49.

Art Unit: 3627

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Merkler et al. and Lalemi et al. show systems of interest from the foreign and NPL databases.
